
Title: Soul All

Author:

Leaders of SOUL sat around the massive stone table in Rivendell discussing the recent news that The Silver Order had declared war upon Stormhaven. Lord Eemphrum, General Spawn, Prince Talon, Princess Shantel, Lady IronRose and the silent member were all shocked that a fellow member would declare upon another. Outrage quickly took over upon learning The Silver Order had joined the Moonglow Alliance.

'Aye, the currier from TSO who bore the war declaration confirmed it to me himself that The Silver Order was now allied with Moonglow.' Shantel informed the group. 'They have betrayed the SOUL Alliance and stand now with one of our foes.' Added Talon.

The group spoke further of immediate plans that needed to be put into motion to defend against this new enemy who now allied themselves with those of darkness.

It was agreed the Kingdom of Stormhaven would post a public notice on the morrow regarding the declaration and members of SOUL would follow for their fellow Britanniens needed to learn of this latest switch of loyalty.
